

Baseball

A Reading A-Z Level J Leveled Book

Word Count: 329

Connections

Writing

Would you like to play baseball?
Write about your answer, using details from the book to support your answer.

Social Studies

Make a model or diagram of a baseball field. Label the different parts of the field and summarize the rules of the game with a partner.

Reading A-Z

Visit www.readinga-z.com
for thousands of books and materials.

LEVELED BOOK • J

Baseball

Written by Susie Paige

www.readinga-z.com

athlete (n.)

a person trained in sports, games, or other activities that require strength, speed, and skill (p. 13)

bases (n.)

four places on a baseball diamond that a runner must reach to score a run (p. 5) batter (n.)

the baseball player whose turn it is to hit the ball (p. 6)

catcher (n.)

the baseball player who catches balls that the batter does not hit (p. 6)

home runs (n.)

baseball hits that allow batters to run and touch all four bases and score a run in one turn (p. 12)

pitcher (n.)

the baseball player who throws the ball that the batter tries to hit (p. 6)

Glossary

Baseball

Written by Susie Paige

www.readinga-z.com

Focus Question

What is baseball and why is it popular?

Words to Know

athlete	catcher
bases	home runs
batter	pitcher

Front cover: A little league baseball player hits a ball.

Title page: Derek Jeter from the New York Yankees throws the ball to first base.

Page 3: A little league runner makes it safely to base.

Photo Credits:

Front cover: © rmanera/iStock/Thinkstock; back cover: © Visions Of America LLC/123RF; title page: © ZUMA Press, Inc./Alamy; page 3: © Cavan Images/Alamy; page 4: © Hero Images/Corbis; page 5 (left): © Blend Images/Alamy; page 5 (center): © Fuse/Thinkstock; page 5 (right): © Erik Isakson/Rubberball/Corbis; page 6: © Tetra Images/Alamy; page 7: © Maciej Frolow/Dreamstime.com; page 8: Courtesy of Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, [LC-DIG-ppmsca-18836]; page 9: Courtesy of Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, [LC-USZ62-135408]; page 10: © LOOK Die Bildagentur der Fotografen GmbH/Alamy; page 11: © Kate Rose/Alamy; page 12: © Ewing Galloway/Alamy; page 13, page 14 (top): © Bettmann/Corbis; page 14 (bottom): © ZUMA Press, Inc./Alamy; page 15: © Tim Clayton/Tim Clayton/Corbis

Baseball
Spectacular Sports
Level J Leveled Book
© Learning A-Z
Written by Susie Paige

All rights reserved.

www.readinga-z.com

Correlation

LEVEL J
Fountas & Pinnell	J
Reading Recovery	17
DRA	18

Playing on a baseball team teaches players how to work together.
It's also fun!

Everybody's Sport

Baseball time begins in the spring
and goes until fall.

Boys, girls, and grown-ups like
to play and watch baseball.

Many people think it is the best game in the world.

Roberto Clemente played for the Pittsburgh Pirates for eighteen years.

Roberto Clemente played baseball with his team for eighteen years. He was really good at hitting the baseball. He scored 240 home runs for his team.

Derek Jeter played baseball for twenty years. He scored 260 home runs for his team. People will always remember him as a great player.

Derek Jeter played for the New York Yankees.

Table of Contents

Let's Play Ball!	4
What Is Baseball?	5
The Story of Baseball	8
Famous Fields	10
Famous Players	12
Everybody's Sport	15
Glossary	16

Baseball Around the World

Let's Play Ball!

Baseball is an exciting game that is played all around the world. Players hit a ball with a bat. When you learn the rules, you can play the game.

Many communities have teams for young players who are learning the game.

Jackie Robinson played with the Brooklyn Dodgers in New York for ten years.

Jackie Robinson is a hero. He was the first black baseball player to play on teams with white players. People look up to him for being a great athlete.

Famous Players

Many people think Babe Ruth was the best baseball player ever. He hit 659 home runs with one team. He played for twenty-one years.

Babe Ruth helped the New York Yankees win many games.

What Is Baseball?

Baseball is a game with two teams. A team has nine players. Baseball teams play in an open field. Players use a bat, a ball, gloves, and four bases.

The batter hits the ball and runs to first base. The other team tries to get the runner out before he or she makes it there.

A pitcher on one team throws the ball to a catcher on the same team. A batter on the other team hits the ball with the bat. The batter runs to first base, second base, and third base. The runner scores one point if he or she reaches the fourth base—home plate.

Wrigley Field is an old ballpark in Chicago. Teams played there over one hundred years ago. They still play there today.

Over forty thousand fans can fit in Wrigley Field. The field is home to the Chicago Cubs.

Famous Fields

Baseball fans love the fields where their teams play.

In Boston, the team plays at Fenway Park.

It is the oldest ballpark in America.

The Story of Baseball

People have played baseball for hundreds of years.

Long ago, people from England brought ball games to America.

The Boston Beaneaters played in Boston over 150 years ago.

The Boston Red Sox played the Washington Senators in 1925.

The games were like baseball in many ways.

Over time, people made new rules and the games became one game—baseball.